DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1- 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

As per claims 1 and 9 applicant claims steps of retrieving and storing a plurality of color space components. Said steps are merely descriptive material without reaching a final result as being useful, concrete and tangible.

Applicant also claims nonfunctional descriptive material on a machine readable medium in claims 1 and 9. The steps taken in said claims present no function to satisfy the practical application requirement and are therefore non- statutory.

Claims 1- 16 are also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. Specifically, since the claimed invention is not supported by either a specific and substantial asserted utility or a well established utility for the reasons set forth above, one skilled in the art clearly would not know how to use the claimed invention.
